OPEN CALL

for dancers/performers

We invite recent graduates of European dance/performance schools to join this open call for a 10-day intensive movement research with the renown Slovak choreographer & performer Yuri Korec. The research is meant to set the basis for the upcoming artistic work and its participants could become the integral part of the new piece.

The research will take place in two 5-day-long blocks in Slovakia within the months July-September 2019 (the most probable dates: 20 – 24 July & 31 August – 4 September 2019). The participation in the research is open only to applicants available for the whole of 10 days. Partial attendance is unacceptable. The participation is remunerated and the accommodation is provided. The travel and diet costs are not covered.

If interested in taking part in the research, submit your CV and a video of your work – max. 5 minutes long by 31 May 2019 (no later submissions will be accepted), please!

You may send a YouTube/Vimeo link or a video file via WeTransfer or similar services; please keep the file below 2GB of size.
